

Addendum to the Scholarship regulations of CZU on the conditions for awarding merit scholarships for students of bachelor and master study programmes, valid in the academic year 2025/2026

Article 1 Introductory Provisions

A merit scholarship may be awarded by the Dean of FAFNR to FAFNR students for Outstanding academic performance in the past academic year, based on an application following the criteria established annually by the faculty management.

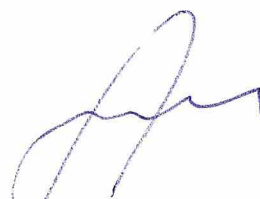

The following criteria have been approved by the faculty management to obtain a merit scholarship for the academic year 2025/2026:

- obtaining the maximum number of ECTS specified in the study plan of the relevant programme and year,
- amount of 12,000 CZK up to and including a grade point average of 1.10,
- amount of 8,000 CZK for a grade point average of 1.11 – 1.25,
- a merit scholarship is not awarded for failure to meet the study plan (e.g. in a repeated year of study, when transferring courses to a higher year) or in an individual study plan,
- examinations taken as part of other study programmes are not considered in the study plan,
- the scholarship is paid for the 1st and 2nd year of the bachelor's degree, as well as for the 1st year of the master's degree,
- the student is entitled to the relevant amount for only one study programme they are studying.

The application for a merit scholarship is submitted by the student to the study administration office of the faculty by 31. 10. 2026.

Article 2
Final Provisions

This decision becomes valid and effective on the day it is announced.
