The International Relations Office (IRO) is a unit within the Dean's office of the Faculty of Agrobiolgy, Food and Natural Resources that is in charge of implementing the international policy of the Faculty and University. IRO informs, engages and supports the academic community of the Faculty (teachers, students and scientists) in their international activities. IRO assists students in international study programmes of the Faculty taught in English and promotes the Faculty study programmes at international level.

IRO is located in room number 120, building FAPPZ A.

Office hours are Mon-Fri: 8-11am

Study Plans

12

- Each bachelor's and master's programme has its own study plan.
- Academic year - two semesters:
 - an autumn/winter (AS/WS) and
 - a summer/spring (SS) semester.
- Study plans contain compulsory subjects/courses and compulsory optional subjects.
- In your first year, you need to achieve at least 10 ECTS in winter semester to be able to enrol into the summer semester.
- Students usually have approximately 6 subjects (5 ECTS each) in winter semester in their first year.
- Your compulsory subjects will be automatically recorded in UIS following enrolment.

Study Plans

13

- If you are meant to study a compulsory optional subject in winter semester of your first year, please email the name and code of the subject to portway@af.czu.cz by Wednesday 24th of September. We will record it in UIS for you.
 - Course catalogue – available in UIS
- Each subject consists of a lecture and a practical training (seminar) – attendance is compulsory:
 - 2 teaching hours of lectures a week = 90 minutes
 - 1-2 teaching hours of practical training a week
 - 1 teaching hour lasts 45 minutes

Study information

14

Each subject has a code which indicates the mode of completion of a subject

← ZEX01Z (Aquatic Ecosystem Restoration)

→ Z (zápočet) = creditation (e.g. project, presentation)

← AAA41E (Advanced Meteorology and Climatology)

→ E (exam) = creditation + exam (e. i. without creditation it is not possible to take the exam)

- Exams can be oral or written
- Grading system for exams: 1 – excellent; 2 – very good; 3- good; 4 – fail

Academic Year Schedule 2025/26

15

Winter semester	 Teaching period	29 September – 19 December 2025
	 Examination period	5 January – 8 February 2026
	Public holidays	17 November 2025
Summer semester	 Teaching period	9 February – 3 May 2026
	 Examination period	4 May – 30 June 2026
	 Summer holidays	1 July – 31 August 2026
	Public holidays	3 April, 6 April, 1 May 2026

A hand wearing a yellow nitrile glove holds a small green plant with a root ball. The plant has several serrated green leaves and a thin stem. The root ball is a dark, moist, irregular shape. To the left, a glass of water is visible, with many small bubbles rising from the bottom. The background is a blurred green, suggesting a garden or greenhouse setting.

Applicant:

Electronic study application to CULS - E-application register

Use this application to administer your e-applications to CULS in the running admission procedure. If you cannot find the faculty CULS where you would like to submit your e-application to, it means that the faculty does not offer the possibility to apply electronically.

For info about dates for submitting e-applications for the individual types of admission procedure see here.

You have already been enrolled to study at CULS and the credentials (login and password) to the UIS environment have been generated for you. You can see the credentials in the table below. Use the link in column First login to UIS to display the information for your first login to the information system. Please store your credentials for further use because the system will not show them again.

Completeness of e-applications

The following page contains the individual sections of the e-application that are subjected to a completeness check. In order to regard your e-application as complete and thus to accept it, it is vital that all these sections are complete. The sections subjected to a completeness check can be divided in two categories. The first category consists of the sections related to the applicant, i.e. to all submitted e-applications, and contains the following Personal information and Applicant's addresses. The second category consists of the sections related to the individual submitted e-applications and contains the following E-application information and Payment information.

Log in to system

On this page you can log in University Information System. You use an assigned user name and a password. The password distinguishes upper case and low case letters. At the same time you can select after which period of inactivity the system logs you out.

 If you fail to log in or do not know the above mentioned information, please contact the IT Helpdesk CZU.

The login form is a light gray box. It contains two input fields: "User name" with the text "xfapt005" and "Password" with masked characters ".....". Below these fields is a "Log in" button. At the bottom of the box, it says "Log out after 1 day of inactivity (change)." An orange arrow points from the text "Fill out your login details (username, password)" to the input fields.

Fill out your login details (username, password)

The next step is the change of your password! Without changing the password, you won't be able to log into other information systems (moodle.czu.cz) or use university email.

How to access MS Teams

1. Login details are the same as for UIS.
2. Teams (based on subjects) in MS Teams would be created in case online teaching is introduced.
3. You should then be able to see your subjects (one team for each subject) in MS Teams.
